

Use Your VA Benefits for Beauty School

A SKILLED TRADE. A FLEXIBLE CAREER. A NEW CHAPTER.

What's next after service?

Your VA education benefits can be used for approved beauty programs, including cosmetology and esthiology programs, helping you build a hands-on career with real opportunity.

Why Beauty School?

Beauty is a skilled trade with strong earning potential and career flexibility.

- Faster path to the workforce
- Flexible schedules + environments
- Opportunities for entrepreneurship
- People-first, service-driven industry

Built for Veterans

Your experience already sets you up for success:

- Discipline → mastering technical skills
- Attention to detail → precision work
- Service mindset → strong client relationships
- Adaptability → fast-paced environments

What VA Benefits May Cover...

Depending on eligibility:

- Tuition
- Educational expenses
- Housing allowance (when applicable)

Aveda
Arts & Sciences
Institutes

AvedaArts.edu / @AvedaArts

Aveda Arts & Sciences Institutes accept VA benefits for qualifying programs.

What You'll Learn

- Hair cutting, color, and styling
- Skincare + advanced esthetics
- Guest experience + consultation
- Business and career-building skills

Get Started

1. Confirm your VA eligibility
2. Connect with Admissions or Financial Aid
3. Explore programs + locations
4. Enroll and begin training

About Aveda Arts

Hands-on education. Real guest experience.

Built to prepare students for long-term success in the beauty industry.

Your Next Chapter

You've built the discipline.

Now build the career.

Next Steps

*Learn More About Financial Aid
& Connect with Admissions to Schedule a Tour*

Aveda Arts & Sciences
Institute locations:

Aveda
Arts & Sciences
Institutes

AvedaArts.edu / @AvedaArts